Step by Step Dating Format 1

Step 1: Introduction

"Hi there! I'm Sarah. I came across your profile and was immediately drawn to your love for travel. I wanted to say hello and see if we might have a connection."

Step 2: Compliment and Question

"I noticed that you've travelled to [insert destination], and it's a place that I've always wanted to visit. What was your favourite part of the trip?"

Answer: "Hi Sarah, it's great to meet you! I really enjoyed my time in [insert destination]. I think my favourite part of the trip was exploring the local markets and trying new foods. Have you travelled anywhere exciting recently?"

Step 3: Sharing Personal Interests

"I haven't travelled as much as I'd like, but I do love trying new foods. Do you have any favourite restaurants or cuisines?"

Answer: "Yes, I'm a big fan of Italian food. There's a great restaurant in my neighbourhood that makes the best pasta dishes. What kind of food do you like to cook or eat?"

Step 4: Asking About Hobbies

"I enjoy cooking and baking in my free time. Do you have any hobbies or interests that you're passionate about?"

Answer: "I love hiking and spending time outdoors. There are so many beautiful trails in the area that I like to explore. What about you, do you have any favourite outdoor activities?"

Step 5: Finding Common Ground

"I've always wanted to try hiking, but I haven't had the chance yet. Maybe you can recommend a beginner-friendly trail for me?"

Answer: "Absolutely! There's a great trail nearby that's perfect for beginners. Would you like to go on a hike together sometime?"

Step 6: Expressing Interest in Future Plans

"That sounds like a great idea! Maybe we can plan a hike for next weekend?"

Answer: "That sounds perfect. Let's plan to meet at the trailhead at 9am. I'm looking forward to it!"

Step 7: Confirming Plans and Contact Information

"Great! I'll see you at the trailhead next Saturday. Do you want to exchange phone numbers in case we need to get in touch?"

Answer: "Sure, here's my number. Text me if anything comes up or if you have any questions before then."

Step 8: Ending the Conversation

"Thanks for chatting with me, [insert name]. I had a great time getting to know you better."

Answer: "Me too, Sarah. I'm excited for our hike next weekend. Have a good day!"

Step 9: Follow-up Message

"Hey [insert name], it was great meeting you yesterday. I hope you had as much fun as I did on the hike. Do you want to grab coffee sometime this week?"

Answer: "Hi Sarah, I had a great time too! Coffee sounds perfect. How about Wednesday evening?"

Step 10: Confirming Plans

"Wednesday works for me. There's a nice coffee shop near my place that we can meet at around 7pm. See you then?"

Answer: "Sounds good, I'll see you at 7pm on Wednesday. Looking forward to it!"

Step by Step Dating Format 2

Step 1: Introductions

Samantha: Hi there! My name is Samantha. How about you?

David: Hey Samantha, nice to meet you! My name is David.

Step 2: Finding common interests

Samantha: So, I noticed in your profile that you're into hiking. I love hiking too! What's your favourite hiking spot?

David: Oh, that's great! I love hiking in the mountains. My favourite spot is probably Mount Rainier National Park. Have you ever been there?

Step 3: Sharing experiences

Samantha: Yes, I've been there once. It's absolutely beautiful! Have you ever gone camping there too?

David: Yes, I have! It's a great place to camp and explore the wilderness. Have you done any other outdoor activities besides hiking and camping?

Step 4: Exploring other interests

Samantha: Yeah, I also love playing tennis and going to the beach. How about you?

David: I enjoy playing basketball and watching movies. What's your favourite movie?

Step 5: Discussing movies

Samantha: Oh, that's a tough question! I have so many favourites. But if I had to choose one, I would say "The Shawshank Redemption". It's such a powerful and emotional movie.

David: I love that movie too! What's your favourite scene from it?

Samantha: I really like the scene where Andy and Red reunite on the beach. It's a really beautiful moment.

Step 6: Sharing hobbies

David: That's a great scene. Besides watching movies, what other hobbies do you have?

Samantha: I love reading books and practicing yoga. How about you?

Step 7: Exploring new things

David: I enjoy trying out new restaurants and cooking different cuisines. Have you ever tried any exotic food?

Samantha: Yes, I've tried sushi and Thai food before. What's your favourite cuisine to cook?

Step 8: Talking about travel

David: I love cooking Italian food. Have you ever been to Italy before?

Samantha: No, I haven't been there yet, but I would love to go someday. Have you travelled anywhere else besides Italy?

Step 9: Getting personal

David: Yeah, I've been to France and Spain before. They were both amazing experiences. So, do you have any siblings?

Samantha: Yes, I have a younger sister. How about you?

Step 10: Planning for the future

David: I have an older brother and a younger sister. It's great having siblings. Well, it was really nice getting to know you, Samantha. Would you like to grab dinner sometime and continue this conversation in person?

Samantha: That sounds like a great idea, David! I would love to.

Online chat format with Negative Response

Initiating the conversation:

You: Hey there! I came across your profile and found it really interesting. I'm [insert your name], by the way.

Response:

Him: Hey, nice to meet you! I'm [insert his name]. Thanks for checking out my profile.

Getting to know each other:

You: So, what do you like to do in your free time, [insert his name]?

Him: I'm really into playing video games and watching movies. How about you?

You: Oh, cool. I like to read and go hiking in my free time.

Him: That's awesome. What kind of books do you like to read?

You: I'm a big fan of fantasy and science fiction. I love getting lost in another world.

Him: That sounds really interesting. I haven't read much in that genre, but maybe you could recommend something for me to check out?

You: Sure! Have you read "The Name of the Wind" by Patrick Rothfuss? It's one of my favourites.

Him: No, I haven't. I'll have to give it a try.

Talking about career goals:

You: So, what do you do for a living?

Him: I'm a software engineer. It's a challenging job, but I enjoy it.

You: That's really cool. Do you have any long-term career goals?

Him: Yeah, I'm hoping to eventually become a project manager and lead a team.

Talking about travel experiences:

You: Have you done much traveling, [insert his name]?

Him: Not a whole lot, but I did go on a trip to Japan a couple of years ago.

You: That's amazing! What did you like most about it?

Him: I loved experiencing the culture and trying new foods. The people were really friendly too.

You: That sounds great. I've always wanted to visit Japan. What other places are on your travel bucket list?

Him: I'd love to go to Europe and see all the historical sites and museums.

Talking about hobbies:

You: Besides video games and movies, do you have any other hobbies?

Him: Yeah, I like to play basketball and try out new recipes in the kitchen.

You: That's really interesting. What's your favourite dish to cook?

Him: I make a mean lasagna. It's a family recipe.

You: That sounds delicious. I'm more of a baker myself. I like to experiment with different cake recipes.

Him: That's awesome. I've always wanted to learn how to bake, but I'm not very good at following recipes.

Ending the conversation:

You: It was really nice getting to know you, [insert his name]. Maybe we could chat more sometime?

Him: Definitely! I had a great time talking to you, [insert your name].

You: Great. Talk to you soon!

Negative response scenario:

You: So, what do you like to do in your free time, [insert his name]?

Him: Not much, to be honest. I work a lot and don't have much time for hobbies.

You: I see. Well, is there anything you're passionate about or interested in?

Him: Not really. I'm pretty busy with work and don't have a lot of free time.

You: I understand. What do you do for a living?

Him: I'm a financial analyst. It's pretty boring, to be honest.

You: Ah, I see. Well, what do you do to unwind after a long day at work?

Him: I usually just watch TV or play video games

Online chat format

Him: Hi there! My name is John. I saw your profile and thought I'd say hello. How are you doing today?

Her: Hi John, I'm doing pretty well, thanks for asking. How about you?

Him: I'm doing pretty well, thanks. So, I saw that you're into hiking. That's really cool! What's your favourite hike that you've ever been on?

Her: Oh, I've been on so many good hikes it's hard to choose! But I think my favourite was when I hiked to the top of Mount Rainier. It was absolutely breathtaking.

Him: Wow, that sounds amazing! I've never been to Mount Rainier, but I've heard it's beautiful. Do you have any other favourite outdoor activities besides hiking?

Her: Yes, I also love kayaking and camping. I try to spend as much time as I can outdoors.

Him: That's really cool. I'm actually a big fan of camping myself. Do you have a favourite camping spot?

Her: Yeah, my favourite spot is in the Olympic National Forest. It's so peaceful and quiet there.

Him: That sounds really nice. I've never been there before, but I'll have to check it out sometime. So, what do you do for work?

Her: I work as a graphic designer for a local marketing agency. It's a pretty creative job, which I really enjoy.

Him: That's awesome! I actually work in marketing too, but on the sales side. What do you enjoy most about being a graphic designer?

Her: I love being able to use my creativity to solve problems and create something that's visually appealing. It's really rewarding to see the end product after putting so much work into a project.

Him: I can definitely see how that would be rewarding. So, what kind of music do you like?

Her: I like a little bit of everything, but my favourite genre is indie folk. I love bands like Fleet Foxes and The Lumineers.

Him: Oh, I'm a big fan of The Lumineers too! Have you seen them in concert before?

Her: Yes, I actually saw them a few years ago. It was such an amazing concert; they sound even better live.

Him: That's so cool. I've always wanted to see them live, but I haven't had the chance yet. So, what do you like to do for fun besides outdoor activities and listening to music?

Her: I really enjoy reading, trying out new recipes, and traveling. I try to do something new and exciting every chance I get.

Him: That's awesome. I'm a big fan of traveling too. What's your favourite place that you've ever been to?

Her: Hmm, that's a tough one. I think my favourite place so far has been Thailand. The food, culture, and scenery were all amazing.

Him: Wow, that sounds incredible. I've never been to Thailand, but it's definitely on my list of places to visit. So, what are you looking for in a relationship?

Her: I'm looking for someone who is kind, caring, and has a good sense of humor. Someone who is adventurous and enjoys trying new things, but can also appreciate the simple things in life.

Him: That's really cool. I think we have a lot in common, and I'd love to get to know you better. Would you be interested in meeting up sometime and grabbing a drink or a bite to eat?

Her: Sure, that sounds great! When were you thinking?

Him: How about next

Other Short Format

Format -1

"Hi there! I'm [insert name]. Your profile caught my eye, and I wanted to say hello. How has your day been going?"

If they respond positively: "That's great to hear! So, tell me a bit about yourself. What do you like to do for fun?"

In this scenario, you're expressing interest in getting to know the person better and asking them about their hobbies or interests. This can help you find common ground and potentially plan a date around shared activities. It's also a great way to show that you're interested in more than just their physical appearance and want to learn more about who they are as a person.

If they respond negatively: "I'm sorry to hear that. Is there anything in particular that's been bothering you?"

In this scenario, you're acknowledging that their day hasn't been great and showing empathy towards them. This can help build a connection and show that you're a caring and understanding person. Asking if there's anything specific that's bothering them can also give them an opportunity to open up and share more about themselves, which can further the conversation and potentially lead to a deeper connection.

Format -2

"Hey, how's it going? I'm [insert name]. I saw that we both like [insert interest], and I thought we could chat about it."

If they respond positively: "Awesome! So, how did you get into [insert interest]? Do you have any favourite moments or memories related to it?"

In this scenario, you're acknowledging a shared interest between the two of you and expressing a desire to talk more about it. This can help you bond over something you both enjoy and potentially lead to a deeper connection. Asking how they got into the interest and if they have any favourite moments related to it can give them an opportunity to share more about themselves and their experiences, which can help build a stronger connection.

If they respond negatively: "No worries, it's not for everyone. What other hobbies or interests do you have?"

In this scenario, you're acknowledging that the shared interest may not be for everyone and showing a willingness to explore other topics of conversation. Asking about their other hobbies or interests can help you learn more about them as a person and potentially find other shared interests to bond over. It's also a great way to keep the conversation going and show that you're interested in getting to know them better.

Format -3

"Hey there! I'm [insert name]. Your profile says that you're a fan of [insert TV show/movie], and I was wondering what your favourite episode/scene is."

If they respond positively: "That's a great episode/scene! I personally love [insert favourite episode/scene]. What do you like about the show/movie?"

In this scenario, you're showing an interest in their profile and a desire to talk more about something they enjoy. Asking about their favourite episode or scene can give them an opportunity to share their thoughts and opinions, and potentially lead to a deeper conversation about the show or movie in question. Sharing your own favourite episode or scene can also help build a connection and show that you have similar tastes.

If they respond negatively: "No worries, not everyone is into the same shows/movies. What other types of shows/movies do you enjoy?"

In this scenario, you're acknowledging that the shared interest may not be for everyone and showing a willingness to explore other topics of conversation. Asking about their other types of shows or movies can help you learn more about their tastes and potentially find other shared interests to bond over. It's also a great way to keep the conversation going and show that you're interested in getting to know them better.

Format -4
